HISTORIC COMMISSION PROPOSED

Mr. George Avila, president of the Mattapoisett Historical Society, has been approached by the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen for help in setting up an Historic District Commission for the purpose of establishing historic districts, to preserve the traditional character of parts of the town. The Selectmen were inspired by a letter from the Secretary of the Commonwealth which pointed out that Mattapoisett "has no municipal agency to act in its name in matters concerning historic preservation". The letter advised the Selectmen that an inventory of places of historic value must be submitted by June 30, 1973 in order for the town to Old Rochester Regional High School will hold its second registration of the year for terms 3 and 4 in early January. This school year ORR implemented a full elective program based upon ten week course offerings in all subject areas in the high school. Students now receive new programs four times per year.

Many disciplines offer four consecutive ten week courses equivalent to the traditional full year course (e.g. Algebra, French). Several disciplines (e.g. English, Social Studies, Home Economics) have adopted entirely new formats of individual course offerings lasting only ten weeks. Some of these courses meet two or three consecutive terms, while many exist independently, without prerequisites. In this manner, there what is probably its first Anglo-Saxon and Chinese wedding Saturday, February 3rd, at 4 P.M. in the Mattapoissett Congregational Church. It will unite in marriage Victoria Louise (Oui-Ruh) Yen and Captain Charles Hunt Williams of the United States Air Force.

Although the wedding will conform to the American marriage customs, it is interesting to note the differences between the American ceremony and that performed in China.

Here in the United States, invitations are sent to both the family and friends of both bride and bridegroom and this custom is also followed in China, but here gifts are sent to the happy married couple but in China they are sent to the bride's parents.

The American custom calls for all expenses of the union to be borne by the parents of the bride, except that the parents of the bridegroom pay costs of the rehearsal dinner. In China, the father and mother of the bride bear none of the expenses except the bride's attire and the ents. If the bridegroom's parents are well to do, these gifts are usually most valuable. There is a wide variety in the gifts but many of them are gold pieces filling a large red and gold envelope and other money for the bride's family.

Also included are yards and yards of fine silk, embroidery and brocades, with many kinds of cooked and raw food, processed food, roast pigs, ducks and chickens, exquisite and traditional pastries, fruit, vegetables and sea foods, scallops, squid, many kinds of fish, salted ducks and chickens, and bottles of the finest liquors. It all is traditional with the Chinese; the wealthier the bridegroom's parents, the more valuable the gifts.

These offerings are intended, according to the Chinese custom, as a reward to the bride's parents, regardless of race or creed, as a reward, in a sense, for raising such a fine, beautiful daughter. It indicates their appreciation for gaining a lovely daughter and also because the bride will drop her family name and assume that of her husband, an addition to the bridegroom's family and a loss to the family of the bride.

In the entourage mentioned above ride the bridesmaids, her relatives and other

In the event that the married couples are Christians, as many Chinese men and women are, then either a Catholic priest or a Protestant pastor will take the place of the Buddhist or other non-Christian priest. There are Christian marriages in China where the ritual of marriage is similar, if not identical, to the Anglo-Saxon ceremony.

The bride's first return to the home of her parents is celebrated elaborately. There always is a big banquet or feast for relatives and friends, chiefly those of the bride.

Revenue Sharing Conference

Mattapoisett has received $33,741. as the first installment of the 1972 share of the Federal program. The balance of the 1972 share, an equal amount, is due in the first part of January, 1973. The town will then receive 1973's share quarterly. This should amount to a total of approximately $150,000 by June 30, 1974. The money does not have to be committed or spent for a period of 24 months. The permitted uses of the Revenue sharing funds are as follows:

V. Permitted Uses

Funds received by city and town governments are required to use Revenue Sharing funds for "priority expenditures". These have been identified by Congress as:

1. Ordinary and necessary maintenance and operating expenses for -
 - a. Public Safety (including law enforcement, fire protection and building code enforcement;)
 - b. Environmental Protection (including sewage disposal, sanitation and pollution abatement;)
 - c. Public Transportation (including transit system, streets and roads;)

h. Financial administration.

This does not mean that funds must be applied to new expenditures in these priority areas. There is no "maintenance of effort" clause in the Federal statute which authorized Revenue Sharing. By applying the new funds to those expenditures which the municipality currently and traditionally makes in these priority areas, the total tax revenue needs of the community may be reduced. The effect of this will diminish the property tax growth rate and, in certain instances, actually reduce taxes.

Tax reductions are unlikely during the forthcoming eighteen-month transitional period; but, the tax impact may be alleviated to some extent. For the fiscal year commencing on July 1, 1974, however, there is the distinct possibility of some tax rate stabilization.

2. Ordinary and necessary capital expenditures authorized by law.

There are, of course, definite advantages in financing improvements on a "pay-as-you-go" basis. This is true when there are several smaller type projects or when public demands in a community have decreased and capital outlays relate principally to modernization and replacement with the result that expenditures tend to become fairly uniform.

Under these circumstances, if borrowing were eliminated, eventually, the community would be on a "pay-as-you-go" basis. The gradual elimination of the community's outstanding debt would release interest charges which could then be applied to pay for projects in the capital improvement program. Thus, it would be possible to accelerate modernization and replacement without drastically increasing capital expenditures.

Revenue sharing monies "sunk" into capital improvements on a "pay-as-you-go" basis could effectively assist in the goal of sound fiscal management and the eventual reduction of outstanding debt.

Capital construction and expenditures, generally, should have a limit high enough to eliminate small items - small pieces of equipment - yet low enough to include construction projects, a number of which would have a definite financial impact on the community.

In calculating the cost of capital facilities be sure that all elements are considered including land, construction, professional fees, equipment, site development and any other direct pertinent items.

Finally, capital facilities expenditures may also involve remodeling, reconstruction and repair of existing facilities. This may be one of the most effective uses of Revenue Sharing funds in the area of capital expenditures.

HEARING CANCELLED

A public hearing scheduled by the Matta-poisett Board of Appeals for Tuesday, December 19th, on application of Evmart
Construction Company, 1934 Acushnet Avenue, New Bedford, to subdivide land located off Rte. 6 between Marion Rd. and Prospect Road, to be called "Snug Harbor", was abruptly cancelled just before the meeting was scheduled to start. In a letter dated December 19th, the Evmart withdrew its application because of a change in construction plans according to the signer, James F. Evans, treasurer. The original plans called for a division of 6 lots reached by an L shaped road with turnaround which entered Route 6 below Prospect Road. No new plan had been received as of this printing.

In acting upon this petition, Mattapoisett Selectmen conferred with Highway Surveyor Manuel Nunes. Mr. Nunes pointed out to them that the road is a Chapter 90 road and as such requires matching funds from the county for construction. Mr. Nunes assured the Board of Selectmen that he has made the necessary repairs to Brandt

BOOSTER MEETING

The next meeting of the Old Rochester Boosters' Club will be Thursday night, January 11th, at 8 at the high school.

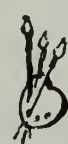

Anti-Pollution in School

Editorial, D.C.J.

Members of the Old Rochester Regional School Committee deserved congratulations for their lack of enthusiasm for the establishment of a smoking room for students of the Regional High School. It is sad to note that students, supposedly enlightened on the hazards of pollution, would request that a room be maintained for the purpose of polluting their lungs. To expect the committee entrusted with the running of the school system to give the official stamp of approval to smoking by minors on school property, is to ask them to negate the purpose of education. The fact that some students will be careless of their own health and fix themselves to a health hazard is regrettable.

However, for the school committee to encourage such stupidity by furnishing a room for the purpose would be to give it official status and spread an unfortunate habit among those pupils who might otherwise have the intelligence and strength to resist the habit.

The fact that adults are permitted to smoke in the school is a double standard that perhaps will be corrected in the future. In the meantime, it might be noted that some double standards are required for the protection of those who are not yet self-sufficient.

Fires in the rest rooms can be far better controlled by a crackdown on violators. To say that vandalism in the building would be lessened by the approval of a smoking area could be interpreted as naked blackmail, another action better suppressed than encouraged.

Appreciation should be extended those School Committee members who realized

Senior Citizens

The Senior Citizens Club of Mattapoisett will hold a meeting on Monday, January 8th, at the American Legion Hall at 2 P.M. Let's start the New Year right. If you haven't joined you are invited and are welcome. You do not have to be old, feeble, decrepit, rich or poor. You may join so long as you have reached that magic age of 59 years. Please do make an extra effort to attend the first meeting of the year, either to join, renew old acquaintances and make new ones. Find out the benefits available. Stand united. Senior power is the greatest of all.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

The Christmas Party held at the Drop-In Center December 18th for the Senior Citizens was a grand success.

Over one hundred members attended and nine patients from the Nursing Home were brought in to enjoy the festivities.

The school band from Old Hammondtown played, conducted by Mr. Medeiros. There were Christmas songs and carols with all participating. Santa Claus made a visit and distributed the gaily wrapped gifts. Following the gifts re-

Council on Aging

The Council on Aging is to the community what the Bureau is to the State, an officially designated agency to promote, encourage new and existing activities and services, a coordinating agency joining local groups together to work with or for the elderly. A local council must be authorized by an act of the City Council or a vote at a Town Meeting. The Mattapoisett Council on Aging was formed, the members were elected by the Board of Selectmen and took oath office July 11, 1972. The first meeting was presided over by Mr. Joseph Greavy, State Coordinator. The Council has had regular monthly meetings and also special meetings to work for all Senior Citizens.

The three basic purposes are:

- to identify the total needs of the community elderly;
- educate the community and enlist support of all citizens;
